

Home Movie Day

Saturday, October 17, 2009
In the PFA Theater

PFA wants to see your home movies on 8mm, Super 8mm, and 16mm formats. It's not too early to start digging through your closet, basement, or grandma's attic!

Submit your home movies to us between now and September 25. We will include as many submissions as possible in a special program on October 17, as part of the international celebration of Home Movie Day.

Admission is free to anyone who submits a movie for consideration. We look forward to seeing you on Home Movie Day!

Early submissions are encouraged!

How to Submit Your Home Movies

- 1 Arrange to drop them off at the PFA offices by calling or e-mailing Pamela Jean Smith at (510) 643-5166 or pamelajeane@berkeley.edu.
- 2 If you are unable to drop off your films in person, contact Pamela at (510) 643-5166 or pamelajeane@berkeley.edu to arrange the best way to ship your film to us.
- 3 If you are unable to submit your home movies ahead of time, please bring them to the PFA Theater on Home Movie Day, October 17, starting at 11 a.m. (2575 Bancroft Way, between College and Telegraph; Berkeley, California). We will inspect films in the order in which they are received; we cannot guarantee we will be able to screen each one.

If we select your films for inclusion in our screening, we will contact you by Friday, October 9. If you have any questions about the submission process or Home Movie Day events, please contact Pamela Jean Smith at pamelajeane@berkeley.edu.

We'd like to find out a little bit more about you and the films you are submitting to us. Please include this information when you submit your films.

Please briefly describe the films you are submitting to us. Give each entry a title, perhaps taken from information written on the box. For each entry, also indicate the number of reels or boxes, the format, the date it was filmed (if known), where the movie came from (such as your grandmother, a thrift store), who shot it, and what it depicts (if this is not clear from the title).

Thank you for taking part in Home Movie Day!
